FR

DARK MATTR, lueur solitaire dans le paysage urbain, dédie sa vie à explorer ses émotions. Développées en concepts et couplets, elles nourrissent ses compositions tout en décrivant son rapport déboussolé à la vie moderne.

Sa vision teintée d'ombre et de lumière, lui inspire de nombreuses chansons douces et résilientes. En attendant la sortie de son premier EP enregistré à Bruxelles, il arpente les scènes intimistes pour partager avec vous sa musique forte d'une richesse thérapeutique qui ne s'adresse pas qu'aux inconsolables. WRITER'S STATEMENT

A walk sheltered from the rain.

DARK MATTR's tormented folk was born facing loneliness. Habitually alone on stage, Mathieu, a young observant and nostalgic songwriter, keep himself floating. Writing appeared to him like a lighthouse and guitar playing like a lifejacket in these troubled waters.

Shaping his own therapy through music, Mathieu realizes quickly how a lot of people share the same melancholy as him. The routine paced by alienating jobs, addiction to coffee, technologies and everything involved in escaping, are common situations in our society.

His will is to gather and think about all that, using the language of emotions.

The voice is intimate, soothing and tell stories in the form of confidences. The folk arrangements lean on hypnotic and steady guitar playing, swapping the regular countryside landscapes for a more urban ambiance. DARK MATTR, a walk in your innermost being, sheltered from the rain.
